An Overview of the Investiture Achievement Curriculum

The Companion level of Investiture Achievement is for Pathfinders in the 6th grade. As you review the requirements, you will see that they are aligned with our curriculum objectives, best practices in education and Pathfinder ministry goals. Throughout the curriculum special focus was given to creating age- appropriate requirements and building a series of requirements that is sequenced from year to year, allowing the Pathfinder to build on the skills previously learned.

The Investiture Achievement requirements are divided into eight sections. Requirements can be met in a variety of ways based on how the individual Pathfinder learns best. Each year that a Pathfinder is Invested and advances to the next level the sections remain the same as the previous year. However, the activities to fulfill the requirements change in order to allow each Pathfinder the opportunities to participate in new experiences and challenges and to practice skills and use information previously learned.

This Investiture Achievement curriculum is designed to create an ongoing learning environment. To maximize the success for each Pathfinder, club directors, instructors and all Pathfinder staff must intentionally:

- Inspire and motivate Pathfinders.
- Emphasize quality, not quantity, of learning.
- Build on knowledge that has been gained in earlier levels.
- Allocate time to practice new concepts and skills.
- Aim for understanding rather than memorization.
- Consider developmental and individual abilities of each Pathfinder.
- Employ effective and flexible strategies to aid learning.
- Use concrete and meaningful activities.

On the following pages you will see an overview of the entire curriculum followed by specific ideas you can use to complete each requirement for the Companion Level.

Visit www.InvestitureAchievement.com for many more teaching ideas on the wiki.

You will also find free downloads that will help you keep track of what each of your Pathfinders have completed

Personal Growth

Goals for this Track:

- Develop a relationship with Jesus through a daily study of His word and prayer
- Embrace the Pathfinder lifestyle

1. Be in Grade 6 or its equivalent.

Companion is written on a sixth grade level and follows the voted action of the North American Division Pathfinder Committee that Companion begin for those going into the sixth grade.

2. a. Develop your devotional life by studying the Weekly Devotional Guide (weeks 14 - 26) and the book of Genesis utilizing printed or electronic resources. (See appendix)

Teaching Tip

The purpose of this requirement is to have the Pathfinders connect with God each day and to help them establish a lifelong habit of personal devotions. Encourage the Pathfinders to reflect on the Bible passages and not simply rush through this requirement. By reading the thirteen week devotional guide for Companions, the Pathfinders should gain a broader view of the Bible. The purpose for reading the book of Genesis is to deepen their understanding of God's love, forgiveness, and plan of salvation. They may use their Bibles, computers, other electronic or audio device to complete this requirement.

b. Journal your thoughts by asking these questions:

“What did I learn about God?”

“What did I learn about myself?”

“How can I apply this to my life today?”

You may journal through writing, drawing or electronic process.

Teaching Tip

Encourage the Pathfinders to journal in a way that reflects their creative style. By responding to the study questions, they will need to think about the meaning of the verses and how they may apply what they have learned to their lives.

3. a. Memorize the Pathfinder Pledge & Law.

The Pathfinder Pledge

By the Grace of God,

I will be pure

I will be kind

I will be true

I will keep the Pathfinder Law

I will be a servant of God

I will be a friend to man

The Pathfinder Law

The Pathfinder Law is for me to

Keep the Morning Watch

Do my honest part

Care for my body

Keep a level eye

Be courteous and obedient

Walk softly in the sanctuary

Keep a song in my heart

Go on God's errands

b. Learn the meaning of the Pathfinder Pledge & Law.

Teaching Tip

Encourage the Pathfinders to lead out in the induction service. Have the Pathfinders explain what each aspect of the pledge and law means.

The meaning of the Pledge

- “By the grace of God” means that I will rely on Him, realizing that His strength is made perfect in my weakness. It means that only as I rely on God can I do His will. It means that only through grace are we saved from our sins through the power of Jesus Christ our Savior and Redeemer.
- “I will be pure” means I will rise above the wicked world in which I live and keep my life clean with words and actions that will make others happy.
- “Kind” means that I will be considerate and kind not only to my fellowmen but to all of God's creation as well.
- “True” means that I will be honest and upright in study, work and play and can always be counted on to do my very best.
- “I will keep the Pathfinder Law” means that I will seek to understand the meaning of the Pathfinder Law and will strive to live up to its spirit, realizing that obedience to law is essential in any organization.
- “I will be a servant of God” means that I pledge myself to serve God first, last and best in everything I am called upon to be or do.
- “a friend to man” means that I will live to bless others and do unto them as I would have them do unto me.

Teaching Tip, Con't

Meaning of the Law

- Keep the Morning Watch. Every boy and girl should have prayer and Bible study every day. The best way to start the day is by studying the Morning Watch which has been prepared as a daily devotional for every Seventh-day Adventist junior boy and girl.

The first food I need is the Word of God. I will study and meditate upon it and make it part of my daily devotions.

I will pray, thanking God for His blessings and asking Him for the things I and others need. God has promised to hear me.

I will share what I have learned in the Word of God with my family and others. I want Jesus to come soon, and I want others to know Him personally as I do.

I will keep the Morning Watch because it is the plan of God to enrich my life and prepare me for His kingdom.

- Do my honest part. “The world does not as much need men of great intellect as of noble character.” Education, pg 225.

“A character formed according to the divine likeness is the only treasure that we can take from this world to the next. Those who are under the instruction of Christ in this world will take every divine attainment with them to the heavenly mansions. And in heaven we are continually to improve. How important then is the development of character in this life.” Messages to Young People, pgs 100, 101.

Recognizing the great need in the world and in my life I will not be afraid of anything that is my duty. I will cheerfully carry all my responsibilities at home, in school, and in the church. I will show good sportsmanship in play and always strive to do my best.

I will do my honest part by keeping out of trouble, taking care of my money, respecting that which is not mine and faithfully carrying out all my responsibilities.

- Care for my body. “One of the greatest aids in perfecting pure and noble characters in the young, strengthening them to control appetite and refrain from debasing excesses is sound physical health.” Messages to Young People, pg 233.

I recognize that the time to establish good habits, to learn self-control and to keep a healthy body is in my youth. I also recognize that my body is the temple of the Holy Spirit and that I have been entrusted with its care. It is my responsibility to learn principles and norms which will help me live happily and free from the vices and corruptions of the world.

I will endeavor to keep my body strong by deep breathing, exercise, proper diet and dress, and by refraining from the use of alcohol, tobacco, tea, coffee and drugs.

- Keep a level eye. At Fort Lincoln, Washington, D.C. there is a statue of Christ which appears to look in all directions. No matter where you stand the eyes of the Lord are upon you. The Bible says; “The eyes of the Lord are in every place beholding the evil and the good.” Proverbs 15:3

Keep a level eye means that no matter where we are, out in the open or in the dark alleys of life, we can look at Jesus straight in the eye and not be afraid. Adam and Eve ran from the presence of God. They could not face Him because they had sinned. In order to keep a level eye I must not lie or deceive. I will tell the truth even if it hurts. I will despise filthy thinking and dirty talk. I will think more of others than of myself.

- Be courteous and obedient. “The golden rule is the principle of true courtesy, and its truest illustration is seen in the life and character of Jesus. Oh, what rays of softness and beauty shone forth in the daily life of our Saviour! What sweetness flowed from His very presence! The same spirit will be revealed in His children.” Messages to Young People, pg 420.

Teaching Tip, Con't

I want to be courteous because courtesy is love shining out of a heart that reflects the love of Jesus. I will always give a kindly greeting and ever be ready to help the stranger, the aged, the sick, the poor and little ones.

I realize that obedience to God must come first, obedience to parents next, and obedience to teachers follow. I want to follow the example of Jesus, who was obedient even unto death on the cross. He came to fulfill a mission and was obedient to His heavenly Father.

- Walk softly in the Sanctuary. When Moses went into the presence of God to receive the Ten Commandments the people were told to sanctify themselves and to wash their clothes. They were to be reverent before the God of the universe. “Children and youth should never feel that it is something to be proud of to be indifferent and careless in meetings where God is worshipped.” Messages to Young People, pg 266.

I will walk softly in the sanctuary, making my feet, my hands, and my heart fit the time and place. God is in the church building, because it is dedicated to His service. In the church I will be quiet, careful and reverent in all I do and say.

I will be reverent in prayer; I will close my eyes and have a proper posture as I talk to God.

I will respect the sanctuary, its buildings, its furniture; I will not talk to my peers; I will remember that the angels cover themselves in humility as they approach the throne of God.

- Keep a song in my heart. “The melody of praise is the atmosphere of heaven; and when heaven comes in touch with the earth there is music and song thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.” Messages to Young People, pg 291.

Music is as much an act of worship as is prayer. Many times youth do not understand this and songs are sung without meaning. We must learn to praise God here on earth, for this will be one of the themes of eternity. There should be joy in our hearts because Jesus came and died on the cross for all of us.

I will keep a song in my heart because I am happy, because I've been redeemed. I will sing while I am alone and while I am with others. I want them to feel the joy of salvation with me, the joy of a Christian, the happiness one experiences with Christ. I will sing when things are right and I will sing when things are wrong. I know that trials and tribulations are God's way of teaching and molding me.

“Let there be singing in the home, of songs that are sweet and pure, and there will be fewer words of censure, and more of cheerfulness and hope and joy. Let there be singing in the school, and the pupils will be drawn closer to God, to their teachers, and to one another.” Messages to Young People, pg 292.

- Go on God's Errands. The supreme purpose of every Adventist junior youth is to do God's work. “Children can be acceptable missionary workers in the home and in the church. God desires them to be taught that they are in the world for useful service, not merely for play. In the home they can be trained to do missionary work that will prepare them for wider spheres of usefulness. Parents, help your children to fulfill God's purpose for them.” Messages to Young People, pg 225.

What a tremendous opportunity to have a part in the finishing of God's work on earth!. Angels would be happy to have this work. But it was given to men, to youth, to boys and girls.

I will accept the daily duties of my home and school to prepare me for greater duties. I will plant a garden for the aged man next door so that someday I might be able to help in an agricultural school in a foreign country. I will help my little brother tie his shoes so that someday I might operate on a patient in a hospital in a mission field. I will clean my father's garage today so that I can help clean heathenism from the hearts of thousands in a distant land.

4. a. Learn the Pathfinder Song (See appendix)

Teaching Tip

Create opportunities for the Pathfinders to learn the Pathfinder song by incorporating it into the club's opening exercise or by setting aside time for memorization.

- What happened in Ellen White's first vision?

Teaching Tip

The accounts of Ellen White's first vision are found in Early Writings, pages 13-32 and in the section below. This material provides excellent food for discussion, especially for a Friday night vesper.

As God has shown me the travels of the Advent people to the Holy City and the rich reward to be given those who wait the return of their Lord from the wedding, it may be my duty to give you a short sketch of what God has revealed to me. The dear saints have many trials to pass through. But our light afflictions, which are but for a moment, will work for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory—while we look not at the things which are seen, for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal. I have tried to bring back a good report and a few grapes from the heavenly Canaan, for which many would stone me, as the congregation bade stone Caleb and Joshua for their report. (Numbers 14:10.) But I declare to you, my brethren and sisters in the Lord, it is a goodly land, and we are well able to go up and possess it.

While I was praying at the family altar, the Holy Ghost fell upon me, and I seemed to be rising higher and higher, far above the dark world. I turned to look for the Advent people in the world, but could not find them, when a voice said to me, "Look again, and look a little higher." At this I raised my eyes, and saw a straight and narrow path, cast up high above the world. On this path the Advent people were traveling to the city, which was at the farther end of the path. They had a bright light set up behind them at the beginning of the path, which an angel told me was the midnight cry. This light shone all along the path and gave light for their feet so that they might not stumble. If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the city, they were safe. But soon some grew weary, and said the city was a great way off, and they expected to have entered it before. Then Jesus would encourage them by raising His glorious right arm, and from His arm came a light which waved over the Advent band, and they shouted, "Alleluia!" Others rashly denied the light behind them and said that it was not God that had led them out so far. The light behind them went out, leaving their feet in perfect darkness, and they stumbled and lost sight of the mark and of Jesus, and fell off the path down into the dark and wicked world below. Soon we heard the voice of God like many waters, which gave us the day and hour of Jesus' coming. The living saints, 144,000 in number, knew and understood the voice, while the wicked thought it was thunder and an earthquake. When God spoke the time, He poured upon us the Holy Ghost, and our faces began to light up and shine with the glory of God, as Moses' did when he came down from Mount Sinai.

The 144,000 were all sealed and perfectly united. On their foreheads was written, God, New Jerusalem, and a glorious star containing Jesus' new name. At our happy, holy state the wicked were enraged, and would rush violently up to lay hands on us to thrust us into prison, when we would stretch forth the hand in the name of the Lord, and they would fall helpless to the ground. Then it was that the synagogue of Satan knew that God had loved us who could wash one another's feet and salute the brethren with a holy kiss, and they worshiped at our feet.

Soon our eyes were drawn to the east, for a small black cloud had appeared, about half as large as a man's hand, which we all knew was the sign of the Son of man. We all in solemn silence gazed on the cloud as it drew nearer and became lighter, glorious, and still more glorious, till it was a great white cloud. The bottom appeared like fire; a rainbow was over the cloud, while around it were ten thousand angels, singing a most lovely song; and upon it sat the Son of man. His hair was white and curly and lay on His shoulders; and upon His head were many crowns. His feet had the appearance of fire; in His right hand was a sharp sickle; in His left, a silver trumpet. His eyes were as a flame of fire, which searched His children through and through. Then all faces gathered paleness, and those that God had rejected gathered blackness. Then we all cried out, "Who shall be able to stand? Is my robe spotless?" Then the angels ceased to sing, and there was some time of awful silence, when Jesus spoke: "Those who have clean hands and pure hearts shall be able to stand; My grace is sufficient for you." At this our faces lighted up, and joy filled every heart. And the angels struck a note higher and sang again, while the cloud drew still nearer the earth.

Then Jesus' silver trumpet sounded, as He descended on the cloud, wrapped in flames of fire. He gazed on the graves of the sleeping saints, then raised His eyes and hands to heaven, and cried, "Awake! awake! awake! ye that sleep in the dust, and arise." Then there was a mighty earthquake. The graves opened, and the dead came up clothed with immortality. The 144,000 shouted, "Alleluia!" as they recognized their friends who had been torn from them by death, and in the same moment we were changed and caught up together with them to meet the Lord in the air.

We all entered the cloud together, and were seven days ascending to the sea of glass, when Jesus brought the crowns, and with His own right hand placed them on our heads. He gave us harps of gold and palms of victory. Here on the sea of glass the 144,000 stood in a perfect square. Some of them had very bright crowns, others not so bright. Some crowns appeared heavy with stars, while others had but few. All were perfectly satisfied with their crowns. And they were all clothed with a glorious white mantle from their shoulders to their feet. Angels were all about us as we marched over the sea of glass to the gate of the city. Jesus raised His mighty, glorious arm, laid hold of the pearly gate, swung it back on its glittering hinges, and said to us, "You have washed your robes in My blood, stood stiffly for My truth, enter in." We all marched in and felt that we had a perfect right in the city.

Here we saw the tree of life and the throne of God. Out of the throne came a pure river of water, and on either side of the river was the tree of life. On one side of the river was a trunk of a tree, and a trunk on the other side of the river, both of pure, transparent gold. At first I thought I saw two trees. I looked again, and saw that they were united at the top in one tree. So it was the tree of life on either side of the river of life. Its branches bowed to the place where we stood, and the fruit was glorious; it looked like gold mixed with silver.

We all went under the tree and sat down to look at the glory of the place, when Brethren Fitch and Stockman, who had preached the gospel of the kingdom, and whom God had laid in the grave to save them, came up to us and asked us what we had passed through while they were sleeping. We tried to call up our greatest trials, but they looked so small compared with the far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory that surrounded us that we could not speak them out, and we all cried out, "Alleluia, heaven is cheap enough!" and we touched our glorious harps and made heaven's arches ring.

With Jesus at our head we all descended from the city down to this earth, on a great and mighty mountain, which could not bear Jesus up, and it parted asunder, and there was a mighty plain. Then we looked up and saw the great city, with twelve foundations, and twelve gates, three on each side, and an angel at each gate. We all cried out, "The city, the great city, it's coming, it's coming down from God out of heaven," and it came and settled on the place where we stood. Then we began to look at the glorious things outside of the city. There I saw most glorious houses, that had the appearance of silver, supported by four pillars set with pearls most glorious to behold. These were to be inhabited by the saints. In each was a golden shelf.

Teaching Tip

I saw many of the saints go into the houses, take off their glittering crowns and lay them on the shelf, then go out into the field by the houses to do something with the earth; not as we have to do with the earth here; no, no. A glorious light shone all about their heads, and they were continually shouting and offering praises to God.

I saw another field full of all kinds of flowers, and as I plucked them, I cried out, “They will never fade.” Next I saw a field of tall grass, most glorious to behold; it was living green and had a reflection of silver and gold, as it waved proudly to the glory of King Jesus. Then we entered a field full of all kinds of beasts—the lion, the lamb, the leopard, and the wolf, all together in perfect union. We passed through the midst of them, and they followed on peaceably after. Then we entered a wood, not like the dark woods we have here; no, no; but light, and all over glorious; the branches of the trees moved to and fro, and we all cried out, “We will dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.” We passed through the woods, for we were on our way to Mount Zion.

As we were traveling along, we met a company who also were gazing at the glories of the place. I noticed red as a border on their garments; their crowns were brilliant; their robes were pure white. As we greeted them, I asked Jesus who they were. He said they were martyrs that had been slain for Him. With them was an innumerable company of little ones; they also had a hem of red on their garments. Mount Zion was just before us, and on the mount was a glorious temple, and about it were seven other mountains, on which grew roses and lilies. And I saw the little ones climb, or, if they chose, use their little wings and fly, to the top of the mountains and pluck the never-fading flowers. There were all kinds of trees around the temple to beautify the place: the box, the pine, the fir, the oil, the myrtle, the pomegranate, and the fig tree bowed down with the weight of its timely figs—these made the place all over glorious. And as we were about to enter the holy temple, Jesus raised His lovely voice and said, “Only the 144,000 enter this place,” and we shouted, “Alleluia.”

This temple was supported by seven pillars, all of transparent gold, set with pearls most glorious. The wonderful things I there saw I cannot describe. Oh, that I could talk in the language of Canaan, then could I tell a little of the glory of the better world. I saw there tables of stone in which the names of the 144,000 were engraved in letters of gold. After we beheld the glory of the temple, we went out, and Jesus left us and went to the city. Soon we heard His lovely voice again, saying, “Come, My people, you have come out of great tribulation, and done My will; suffered for Me; come in to supper, for I will gird Myself, and serve you.” We shouted, “Alleluia! glory!” and entered into the city. And I saw a table of pure silver; it was many miles in length, yet our eyes could extend over it. I saw the fruit of the tree of life, the manna, almonds, figs, pomegranates, grapes, and many other kinds of fruit. I asked Jesus to let me eat of the fruit. He said, “Not now. Those who eat of the fruit of this land go back to earth no more. But in a little while, if faithful, you shall both eat of the fruit of the tree of life and drink of the water of the fountain.” And He said, “You must go back to the earth again and relate to others what I have revealed to you.” Then an angel bore me gently down to this dark world. Sometimes I think I can stay here no longer; all things of earth look so dreary. I feel very lonely here, for I have seen a better land. Oh, that I had wings like a dove, then would I fly away and be at rest!

Early Christian Labors

After I came out of vision, everything looked changed; a gloom was spread over all that I beheld. Oh, how dark this world looked to me. I wept when I found myself here, and felt homesick. I had seen a better world, and it had spoiled this for me. I told the view to our little band in Portland, who then fully believed it to be of God. That was a powerful time. The solemnity of eternity rested upon us.

Serving Others

Goals for this Track:

- Encourage spiritual growth through a discovery of the Bible and Christian history.
1. In consultation with your leader, plan ways and find opportunities to spend at least two hours helping an elderly person.
    - Who needs my help?
    - How could I help this person in a meaningful way?

Teaching Tip

Volunteering with the elderly creates wonderful opportunities for the Pathfinders to develop their servant-leadership skills. It may be necessary to have an orientation session with the Pathfinders before their initial visit; especially if they are not used to being around senior citizens. Here is a basic overview of things to keep in mind:

- Be polite and pleasant.
- Remember that the elderly may require more time to navigate through a conversation or a task. Be sensitive to their needs.
- Speak clearly and face the person when speaking to them as many elderly suffer from loss of hearing and/or impaired vision.
- Avoid moving or rearranging items without their consent.

2. Spend at least four hours participating in projects that benefit the church or school.
  - How may I help?

Teaching Tip

Make this event fun by doing the project in groups of two, and having pizza at the end of the activity.

Possible school projects:

- Plant and care for flower beds
- Clean and fix up restroom facilities
- Help arrange and care for the library
- Start a “collections” library of nature items, historic items, etc.

Possible church projects:

- Ground improvement
- Work bee
- Help with custodial duties
- Plant a “giveaway” community garden

Advanced for Serving Others

1. Complete Friend requirements.

The Trail Companion requirements may be done simultaneously with the Companion requirements. However, both the Trail Companion requirements and the Companion requirements must be completed in order to be invested as a Trail Companion

2. Participate in an outreach activity, and bring a non-club member to participate with you.

- Who could I invite?
- What activity could we participate in together?

Teaching Tip

- a. Present a Sabbath afternoon program for shut-ins.
- b. Present a program at a nursing home.
- c. Present a special holiday program at an orphanage or children's ward at a hospital.
- d. Arrange for a special visit to a school for the deaf or blind.

Making Friends

Goals for this Track:

- Develop a relationship with God that fosters positive friendships, strong moral values, and civic responsibility.
1. Discuss how the media strengthens or weakens our relationships with others.
    - How does media strengthen or weaken relationships with others?

Teaching Tip

Facilitate an open discussion where the Pathfinders may express their views and experiences. Shed light on how social media can both positively and negatively impact relationships. Also caution against sharing personal information on the Internet.

- Learn and practice safety procedures, first aid and rescue skills.

1. Learn the value of temperance:

a. Memorize and sign the Temperance Pledge.

Temperance Pledge

“Realizing the importance of healthy body and mind, I promise, with the help of God, to live a Christian life of true temperance in all things and to abstain from the use of tobacco, alcohol, or any other narcotic.”

Teaching Tip

Discuss what the Bible and Ellen G. White say about temperance and encourage the Pathfinders to sign and carry their Temperance Pledge card. You can create a card or purchase one from AdventSource (#500300)

Some meaning of Temperance:

- Temperance is self-control through the power of the Holy Spirit.
- As we ask, God through His Spirit guides us in the choices we make.
- We first choose to serve Him.
- We choose to say NO to Satan.
- As we ask Him, God gives power to resist temptation.
- We choose to eat and drink those things that are healthful in a way that will honor God.
- We choose not to eat or drink anything that would be harmful.
- We choose to allow God to guide in all our daily activities.
- Man was created perfect in the image of God, healthy, free from disease.
- Adam and Eve had natural appetites given by God to enjoy what God had made.
- God also gave them the power of reason, choice and self-control.
- They were tempted by Satan to eat of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
- Being deceived, they used the power of choice wrongly.
- They lost their self-control and came under the influence of Satan. People have been making wrong choices ever since.
- This is evidence of lack of self-control.

(Source, AY Instructor's Manual, pg 133)

Ellen G. White's statements on temperance:

- “True temperance teaches us to abstain entirely from that which is injurious, and to use judiciously only healthful and nutritious articles of food.” Temperance, p. 3.
- “The only safe course is to touch not, taste not, handle not, tea, coffee, wines, tobacco, opium, and alcoholic drinks.” Counsels on Diet and Foods, p. 428.
- “...temperance alone is the foundation of all the graces that come from God, the foundation of all victories to be gained.” Temperance, p. 201.
- “A pure and noble life, a life of victory over appetite and lust, is possible to everyone who will unite his weak, wavering, human will to the omnipotent, unwavering will of God.” Temperance, p. 113.
- “Tobacco is a slow, insidious, but most malignant poison, in whatever form it is used, it tells upon the constitution; it is all the more dangerous because its effects are slow and at first hardly perceptible.” Ministry of Healing, p. 237-328.

b. Memorize two of the following Bible texts.

- 1 Corinthians 10:31

Nature Study

Goals for this Track:

- Develop an understanding of God, the Creator of all things, through the study and observation of His creation.
1. a. Read pages 1-13 from the booklet “a 6 Day” Creation Week?

Teaching Tip

Resource

- “a 6 Day” Creation Week? by Noble Vining (AdventSource #416608)

- b. Keep a 7-day outdoor log of your personal observations from nature in which each day focuses on those things that were created on that day.

Teaching Tip

“By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.”
Ps 33:6

The purpose of this requirement is to instill in the Pathfinders the solid conviction that God was and is the Creator of all things and that the Genesis story of creation is central to understanding the plan of salvation. Inextricably tied to the creation story is the seventh-day Sabbath. The Pathfinders who fulfill this requirement should have an understanding of the relationship between creation and the Sabbath in terms of the plan of salvation.

The story of how things began in Eden is probably the most magnificent and wondrous story ever told, except the story of Jesus who came to save that which He had created. Pathfinders should be led to see the adventure and the wonder of the creation story. Help them to hear and to see what might have happened. Then make sure that they understand that we cannot even imagine the perfection and wonder of it all.

Talk to them about what it might have been like each day. What was it like before day one? Talk about darkness—complete darkness without any source of light that we know about; it was like being in a cave when all of the lights are turned off—that’s dark! Where did the light come from on the first day of creation?

Tell them about the arrival of light, on the first day. Where God is, there cannot be darkness. Some of the Companions may still be afraid of the dark. Tell them about Jesus and how He takes care of us when we are in the dark.

Why did God create the world? Was there a logical order to the way God made the world? What were the animals like then, the birds, the insects, the flowers, the trees, the clouds—everything?

How did God make the world and all that is in it? How does that creative power relate to you and me? Are we beyond the power of the Creator of the whole universe? Of course we’re not, but some young people believe that God is too busy to be concerned about them or that they aren’t good enough to merit which Jesus created everything on earth. With full realization that sin was going to come in and mess things up, He still took care to make everything on earth perfect in every detail. Think of it!

To make the creation week a bit more meaningful, have each Pathfinder keep a daily log for one week, recording for each day those natural phenomena that he/she sees, hears, or otherwise experiences which illustrate each of the days of creation. Try to have the youth begin the log on Sunday, the first day of the week, so the culmination of the experience can be on Sabbath, the seventh day. You could supplement the requirement with experiences planned through the week which would help the Pathfinder learn about the significance of that day in the creation week. For example:

First Day: Make a note of all of the sources of light that you can find. How many of them are natural, occurring without the help of man? How many of them were present on the first day of creation week? If possible, take a field trip to a cave and have all of the lights turned off so the youth can experience the intensity of the darkness in the total absence of light. Second Day: Keep a weather chart for the day, noting the temperature, wind direction and wind speed (if available), and any precipitation. If possible, visit the local weather station, or water treatment plant. Make a note of the and/or air that day.

Third Day: Make a note of the time of year and of what state the various plants are in (e.g., spring buds, summer fruit, fall colors, winter dormancy). The youth might want to collect some leaves from several trees, identify them, and press them for their notebooks; or they might want to do the same with some flowers found that day. If possible, visit a nurseryman, or farmer to get some idea of the various requirements that must exist in order for plants to grow healthy. If you live where there is water, notice that there are also water plants that grow where there is no dry land.

Fourth Day: Note the presence of the star that gives us light by day, and note the status of the moon on that day (i.e., new moon, first quarter, and so on). Have the youth take a look at the stars, if visible, and see if they can count them. It would be wonderful if you could take the future Companions to a planetarium to get a more adequate perspective of just what the sun, moon, and stars are all about. During the date note the effects of the sun and/or the moon (e.g., the tides, suntan, evaporation of water, plant growth, and others).

Fifth Day: Make a list of the birds seen, and see how many the youth can identify; also, see how many they can identify by sound. You might want to set up a bird feeder, visit someone else's feeder, or visit an aviary. Record what is seen there. Beyond just identifying the birds, have the youth make some notes about what the birds are doing and give some possible reasons for the birds' behavior. Also, on this day see if you can observe any fish, such as in a public or private aquarium, or even a local pet shop. Record the observations.

Sixth Day: This is a special day for observing and recording the creation week. Not only were all of the animals and creeping things created on this day, but also Adam and Eve were as well. You might want to have the youth divide their observations for this day into two parts: (1) animals and creeping things, and (2) interesting things that you see people doing. Try to determine whether or not the things that you see these groups doing are things that they (both animals and people) would have done on the sixth day of creation week.

Seventh Day: Since this was the day set aside, after Jesus was finished creating the world, for His people to remember Him and how much He loves them, try to observe natural wonders that you see that illustrate the care and keeping of Jesus for His creatures. It may be a mother cat washing her kittens, a bird building a nest, a rainbow, the shade of a tree; it can be an endless number of things. Be sure that the observations made on this day are special; try to draw from the natural observations some personal message of love from Jesus to all of us.

If possible, get one of your Companions relate the story of creation as a testimony of the creative power of Jesus, not only in the world, but also in his/her own life. Make the telling of this experience something special; it could be given as a testimony in church or in a school assemble. But perhaps the most meaningful way to tell the story would be to share in around a campfire under the starry heavens or on the seashore as the waves pound the beach with the power given to them by the Creator.

Bible Sword Drill

Instructions:

1. Select participants:
  - Two Pathfinders to hold the rope.
  - As many Pathfinders as desired.
2. Participants will form one straight line behind a rope held immediately in front of them approximately 30 inches from the floor. Their Bible is to be held (sheathed) under their left arm.
3. Leaders will give the commands: "ATTENTION: "DRAW SWORDS". Participants quickly bring their right hand across their body-draw their sword (Bible) and hold it in front of them, closed, waist high, ready to find the reference.
4. Leader announces the reference, eg: "The Book of mark" (begin with the well-know books), or ask for a book from one of the sections, eg: gospels, letters. The exercise becomes more difficult as you call the smaller books, or ask for specific chapter and verse.
5. No participant moves until the order is given: "CHARGE". The rope is dropped to their feet while the participants quickly find the reference. Immediately the reference is found, they take one pace forward, keeping one hand on the open page of the Bible.
6. A ten second time limit is given from the command "CHARGE" to find the reference and step one pace forward. (Vary the time limit to suit the experience of your group).
7. The timekeeper will call "TIME" as the time limit expires. The rope will immediately be raised, perhaps catching some participants part way across. They should return behind the line.
8. Each participant who steps across the line before the time limit is reached is a winner.
9. An appointed judge will inspect the references.
10. An award of two points can be given to each winner. See who is the first to get to twenty.
11. Leader shall call "ONE PACE BACKWARD MARCH". Ropekeepers shall lower the rope and raise it again after the participants have crossed it.
12. Leader shall call "SHEATH SWORDS". Participants quickly tuck their Bibles under their left arm and return right hand to their side.
13. Ready now to repeat activity from "DRAW SWORDS".

Basic Water Safety

Reason for the new honor - Beginner's Swimming Honor is based on the Red Cross level 3 requirements. With recent changes to the level 3, it is now impossible for a club to do the Beginner's Swimming Honor in a backyard pool. Level 3 requires a pool to be 9 foot deep. The desire of the Investiture Achievement Committee was to require a swimming level to be taught in order to protect our Youth from drowning.

Therefore the proposed Basic Water Safety Honor is based on elements from the Red Cross Levels 1 & 2 but adapting those requirements that can be done in a backyard pool (being 2-3 feet deep) under adult supervision, not necessarily using a lifeguard or water safety instructor. For safety and in case of an emergency, always have an adult observing all participants who is not part of the teaching process. Resources: YouTube videos show how to teach many of these requirements

1. Enter and exit the water un-assisted.

The point is to teach how to get in and out of a pool without assistance and safely.

2. While holding your breath, fully submerge your face under water for five seconds.

This can be done by sitting on the bottom or by bending over and putting just the face in the water, as long as the full face stays covered for the full time.

3. Alternately inhale through the mouth above the surface and blow bubbles through the mouth/nose, with face completely submerged, seven time rhythmically and continuously.

This is called Rhythmic Breathing. It can be accomplished by bobbing up and down if the pool is deep enough or by leaning over and putting the face in the water to blow the bubbles, then lifting the head or turning the head for the breath, then placing the face back in the water to blow the bubbles again. This is not to be done quickly but over at least two seconds blow the air out then take a full breath of air to blow again. This teaches breath control.

4. Open your eyes under water and retrieve submerged objects two times.

This is to practice breath control while giving them a purpose and helping them to feel more comfortable under water.

5. Front float for five seconds.

Lean forward with both arms stretched out above head with fingers straight and hands open. Take a deep breath and continue leaning forward until body is parallel with the bottom of pool and face is in the water. To prevent water getting in the nose, blow bubbles out the nose slowly. If you start to sink, kick your legs a few times and move arms back and forth. When through, feel bottom of pool and stand up.

6. Front glide for two body lengths.

Follow the instructions for the front float but push off to get momentum to glide. If the pool is not big enough for two body lengths, go from one side of the pool to the other.

7. Back float for fifteen seconds.

While supporting the head/back, have them lay back in the water with arms out and legs out. Have them lay head back. Do not let them go until they are ready and say it is ok. Have them keep lungs as full as possible.

8. Holding on to the side of the pool, kick with your feet for twenty seconds.

The purpose is to build endurance and practice technique in a pool that may not be large enough to swim in. The recommended kick is the flutter kick. Keep knees as straight as possible, bending at the waist. If the pool is too shallow the frog kick that is part of the breaststroke may be used.

9. Using arm and leg motion, swim five body lengths.

No particular stroke is required. If the pool is shallow, do the best they can. They may have to go back and forth in the pool to get five body lengths.

10. Learn to put on a Life Jacket and float for thirty seconds.

Not only is it important to learn how to put on a Life Jacket but also learn to trust that it will hold the one wearing it up.

11. Demonstrate water safety by:

- a. How to call for help in case of an emergency.
- b. Learn how to release a cramp.
- c. Demonstrate reaching assist.
Can use a towel, rope, shirt, umbrella, arm or leg to reach out to someone who is in need of help without getting in the water to help them
- d. Learn at least ten safety rules when around water.
  - 1) May include: Never swim alone.
  - 2) Do not swim without an adult or lifeguard present.
  - 3) Always ask permission.
  - 4) Do not run near water.
  - 5) No pushing.
  - 6) No diving except where it is safe.
  - 7) Do not jump in close to others.
  - 8) Wear sunscreen and limit exposure to sun.
  - 9) Do not swim if lightning is possible.
  - 10) Do not enter water over your head until you can swim well.
  - 11) Do not dunk another person.
